To Cloudflare:

We are attorneys for plaintiffs in the above case. On May 2, 2022, you were served at both your registered agent's address and at your corporate offices with the attached cover letter and court order, directing Cloudflare to cease providing services to the owners and operators of www.Irael.tv, which is willfully infringing on the copyrights of movie producers, television stations and sports broadcasting in Israel. (Affidavits of service, one of which is signed, are annexed hereto.)

Cloudflare to date has not complied with the court order. Please confirm your intent to do so in the immediate future.

To Cloudflare:

We are attorneys for plaintiffs in the above captioned lawsuits filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. On April 26, 2022, the court issued orders granting permanent injunctive relief in favor of the plaintiffs (movie, television and sports program producers whose works are being pirated and streamed in real time in the United States). Such relief included directing Cloudflare to cease providing services to the infringing website located at www.Israel.tv (see attached order in Case No. 21 CV 11024 at Exhibit C) and to transfer domain names for www.Sdarot.tv (see attached order in Case No. 21 CV 11026 at Exhibit A).

The attached orders were served on Cloudflare on or about April 29, 2022 by process server at the addresses for your registered agent for purpose of service of process and at your headquarters in San Francisco. Despite such service, no one has responded to the orders. Indeed, Cloudflare continues to provide services to Israel.tv, and has failed to transfer the domains for Sdarot.tv to plaintiffs as the orders require.

If you do not provide a substantive respond by May 26, 2022, the plaintiffs are prepared to take action to enforce the attached Orders against Cloudflare. Cloudflare's failure to respond constitutes contempt of court for which Cloudflare will be held liable to the full extent of the law. Be reminded that court proceedings are matters of public record.

Thank you,
